

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

ILLEGIB

September 13, 1963

Dear John:

As I mentioned to you the other night at the White House, we shall be glad to cooperate with Mr. Bross as he goes about helping you in your coordinating responsibility referred to in your memorandum of September 4.

I know that Tom Hughes will cooperate fully with Mr. Bross and will allow full access by him and his staff to the information and activities of the Bureau of Intelligence and Research.

Sincerely yours,

Dean Rusk

The Honorable
John A. McCone,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency.
